

Learn about the historic eminent domain lawsuit before the Iowa Supreme Court
filed by the Iowa Sierra Club and landowners along the route of the Dakota Access Pipeline.

(Iowa Supreme Court No. 17-0423)

AMES COMMUNITY FORUM

Saturday, June 2, 11:00am-12:30pm

Public Library Auditorium

515 Douglas Avenue, Ames, Iowa 50010 (515) 239-5646

Refreshments will be served

PROGRAM:

- Welcome and Introduction (Ed Fallon: Founder of Bold Iowa)
- Overview of the lawsuit (Attorney Wally Taylor: Sierra Club Iowa Chapter)
- The pipeline's impact on farmers and landowners
- Indigenous concerns about the pipeline (Shelly Buffalo: Meskwaki mother, artist, and farmer)
- Presentation of "Crossing the Divide" by Ralph King, filmed last spring as the 2017 Climate Justice Unity March walked 85 miles to Des Moines. The 15-minute film shows the value of rebuilding trust and unity across political, cultural and geographic lines.
- First Nation - Farmer / Climate Unity March (Sarah Spain: Bold Iowa)
- Discussion, Q & A, and next steps / www.mightycause.com/story/climatemarch/

BRING THIS ROADSHOW TO YOUR TOWN!

- Contact Sarah Spain at (805) 857-3715 or sarah@climatemarch.org
- Sponsors: Bold Iowa \(boldiowa.com\), Indigenous Iowa and Climate March

